Welcome to Lenox!

With something to offer for everyone, whether it be outdoor adventure, cultural offerings, farm-to-table dining, or shopping and simply strolling the town center, Lenox has it all.

Named "The Best Small Town in the Northeast" and making the Top 10 list of the "Best Small Town Cultural Scenes" by USA TODAY©, Lenox is a special place where modern day meets small town living. In a place where people passing on the sidewalk say "Hello," you'll find everything you could want within two square miles of the town center.

Lenox inevitably becomes a special place to all who visit. Take a hike on beautiful nature trail, enjoy music and a picnic at Tanglewood, the BSO's summer home, or catch a live performance at Shakespeare & Company, just one of our world class theatre venues. Stroll and shop for art, jewelry, fashion or indulge in the spa at Canyon Ranch or take a yoga class at a wellness studio. Farm-to-table is a way of life here in the Berkshires and is reflected in our restaurants. With world-renowned chefs such as Daniel Boulud at Blantyre, our food and wine scene is anything but small town. After a full day of exploring and experiencing all that is Lenox, stay at the historic Gateways Inn or Annie Selke's 33 Main boutique inn, just two of the many lodging options.

Lenox, once the summer getaway for the wealthy families of the Morgans, Vanderbilts and Sloans during the turn of the century, has now become a utopia for all who reside and visit. Surrounded by natural beauty in all seasons, Lenox has become the destination wedding and event location. From the historical "cottages" of the Gilded Age to rustic farms and everything in between, Lenox has the setting to make for a perfect celebration.

We know you will find the #lenoxlove while you're here...
